

My complaint concerns the 1/2 time show at the Super Bowl this past Sunday. I am a teacher and was stunned not only at the incident with Janet and Justin but the how it affected the children I teach. It was very difficult to hush the discussion of what happened. I teach Kindergarten through fourth grade. I was not sure myself how to appropriately address the students discussing the incident. Keep in mind some students didn't watch what happened yet were brought into conversations about it. We were not given a choice as a public to watch such a disgusting abuse of celebrity. Please do not let this incident go without penalty to either CBS or both Janet Jackson and Justin Timberlake. There was no excuse or acceptable apology. On another note public exhibition is against the law if that is what Janet wanted to accomplish and Justin's ripping of her top was nothing short of sexual assault. I wonder how some males view that behavior and what affect it has on young women.
